Student Rep: What's Been Happening

Terry Fox Walk there was a lot of school participation and over $1600 was raised for cancer research

Hot lunches: pizza, subs, and pita days have started, and the students are really enjoying them

Clubs: There are lots of clubs and activities for kids to choose from: crochet, soccer, volleyball, student leadership, and rugby have all started.

Snack Program: every day a bin of healthy snacks is placed in each classroom in case students need a little extra to fill their bellies. Kids have been able to choose snacks. Lots of choices: apples, muffins, oatmeal cookies, granola bars, fruit cups and yogurt tubes.

Upcoming events:

- Next Monday, Halloween parade and parties or activities in the class. Students can also opt to wear orange and black,
- PD on Monday: Focusing on getting to know each learner and truly understand each student in our class (traditions, what brings them joy, etc)
- Combine that with data we collect (math assessments, reading, etc) then we can make a plan for moving forward
- EQAO results will be public next week
- Tutors from Brock have started with partnership with the Board. This will include 100 hours of tutoring with students grade 1-3

POSSIBLE FUNDRAISING DISCUSSIONS:

Mabel's Labels:we will be adding this info about us getting a percentage to the next newsletter and possibly to the school website

Cobb's Fundraiser:

Heather Duncan will not be returning to meetings but will help with fundraiser. She will contact Cobbs when we have some dates and a price to charge. Cobb's Bread card.... They are selling them for $25.. We would get $15 as profit.

(ended conversation thinking we may need to wait on this one as people out of town may not be able to buy- and will do poinsettias at this time)

Vermeer's Poinsettia: money to go School fund

6" red white pink	5.50 plus HST	suggest 9.50	4 profit	11 would clear
10" red & white	18.50	suggest 25	6.50 profit	28 would clear
10" Porch Pot	22.00	Suggest 30	8 profit	34 would clear

Amy will follow up with the flyer and print. She will send to Kelly and Jenn to get on GOAL : to send out Nov 1-4th

Chocolate Bar: Amber is our lead on this initiative

She will need to give them some lead time.

Thinking Family Day to March Break: thinking that time would work and allow for seeing families, too

Sell $3 with 30 in a box for $90

Profit: ranges from $36 to $40

Had people order in advance on School Cash Online or could bring in cash.

Risk free as we can return full boxes.

Prizes: she has done Great Wolf lodge, hover boards, Toys R Us gift cards....

Every seller is entered and also prizes for Most Sold. They also have extra prizes.

Find the Stuff: hid in the school and got a prize from bin when found. Great way to remind

Two options:

- Sell with order form to every student: Order through cash online, parents pick up
- Do on their website

NEXT MEETING: Wednesday, December 14th at 6:30 p.m.
